

Internet privacy policy

We understand that privacy is an important issue for users of, and visitors to, the Pharsyde Solutions Ltd Internet site www.pharsyde.co.uk and its related domains. The following information is designed to help visitors understand what information we collect, and how we handle and use the information after that.

We will follow the Pharsyde privacy principles:

Privacy is recognized as a fundamental human right by the United Nations (UN) in Article 12 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, as well as in other UN conventions. Pharsyde is therefore fully committed to ensuring the right to privacy of people, as well as the privacy of business and society, as we lead ICT transformation across industries and enable the Networked Society.

Why does privacy matter to Pharsyde?

Privacy is fundamental for building trust in the networked society. The nature of Pharsyde's business gives us an additional responsibility to work effectively with privacy.

What is Pharsyde doing?

We align our business with all legal requirements for privacy. In addition, we have developed a series of clear Pharsyde Privacy Principles.

What is privacy?

Definitions of privacy can vary between stakeholders or countries. However, broadly speaking, privacy is the right to be left alone or to enjoy freedom from interference or intrusion, including the right to have control over how personal information is collected, used, retained and disposed of.

Pharsyde privacy principles

- Notice to individuals to identify the purposes for which Personal Information is collected, used, retained and disclosed.
- Choice and consent available to individuals with respect to the collection, use, retention and disclosure of Personal Information.
- Collection of Personal Information for the purposes identified in the Notice.
- Use, retention and disposal of Personal Information as identified in the Notice and for which the individual has provided Consent.
- Review of Personal Information for individuals to access their information and ensure it is correct and accurate.
- Disclosure to third parties of Personal Information for legal purposes only.
- Personal information will never be used for third party marketing purposes.
- Transferring data to other countries in a legal, secure and auditable manner.
- Security for privacy of Personal Information to help protect against unauthorized access and use.
- Quality of Personal Information to ensure that reasonable steps are taken to ensure Personal Information is correct and accurate.
- Accountability and Privacy by Design to ensure compliance with the privacy framework.
